

Application No.4916 of 2017
in C.S.No.564 of 2011

R.SURESH KUMAR, J.

Learned Advocate Commissioner has filed a memo seeking for additional remuneration, since the work entrusted to him has been completed. He also submitted that he spent Rs.18,000/- to complete the task.

2. Considering the said submission by the learned Advocate Commissioner, and taking into consideration the work done by him, this Court is inclined to allow Rs.50,000/- (Rupees Fifty Thousand only) as additional remuneration, which shall be paid by both the parties. Apart from the same, a sum of Rs.18,000/- (Rupees Eighteen Thousand only) towards the expenses the Advocate Commissioner has incurred out of his pocket, shall also be paid.

3. Since the initial remuneration of Rs.50,000/- was paid by the defendants, insofar as this additional remuneration is concerned, out of Rs.50,000/-, Rs.25,000/- shall be paid by the defendants and Rs.25,000/- shall be paid by the plaintiff,

R. SURESH KUMAR, J.

KST
which is pertaining to their shares. With regard to the expenses incurred by the Advocate Commissioner ie., Rs.18,000/-, the defendants shall pay Rs.12,000/- and the plaintiff shall pay Rs.6,000/-. These payments shall be made by the respective parties to the Advocate Commissioner within one week from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

4. Learned counsel for the plaintiff wants to file his objection to the Advocate Commissioner's report and he seeks two weeks time for the same. Post the matter on 23.04.2019.

सत्यमेव जयते

05-04-2019

KST

Note : Issue the order copy on 08.04.2019

Application No.4916 of 2017
in C.S.No.564 of 2011