2. The case of the petitioner is that she was born to his father's first wife and her father married for a second time. 4. The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that the representation of the petitioner dated 08.05.2017 is directed to be disposed of by the respondent, within a stipulated period.

5. The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondent has stated no objection for such an order being passed by this Court.

6. Considering the limited scope of relief sought for by the petitioner and also considering the submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on either side, this Court without going into the merits of the case, directs the respondent to consider and dispose of the representation of the petitioner dated 08.05.2017 and pass orders on merits and in accordance with law, within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and communicate the decision taken to the petitioner.
