2.Heard both sides.

PUSHPA SATHYANARAYANA,J.

VRI

Rs.7500/- per month against the claim of Rs.10,000/- made by the wife /respondent. It is now stated that subsequent to the filing of the revision in April, the O.P. itself was dismissed on 18.06.2016 for default and so far, no steps had been taken for restoration of the same. In fact, earlier this court as a condition had directed the revision petitioner to pay a sum of Rs.1,00,000/- which has already been complied with. As the main O.P. itself is dismissed, the revision automatically has become infructuous. Hence, the civil revision petition is dismissed as infructuous. It is open to the wife/respondent to take appropriate steps for maintenance in the manner known to law. No costs. The connected miscellaneous petition is also dismissed.
