In view of the subsequent developments of modification in the Rules of certificate verification, no further adjudication needs to be entertained.

2. The learned counsel for the writ petitioner also states that the very same petitioner has already approached the Supreme Court of India, for redressal of grievances in respect of the modification and qualification of Teachers Eligibility Test in SLP.No.31042 of 2012.

3. Thus, no further adjudication on the grounds raised in this writ petition needs to be considered.

4. Accordingly, the writ petition stands closed. However, there shall be no order as to costs.
