in G.O.Ms.No.844, Home (Police-v) Department, dated 03.06.1997 and G.O.Ms.No.13, Home (Police-V) Department, dated 6.1.2010. According to the petitioners, similarly placed persons made representations for revising their pay scale based on the above Government Orders. They were all rejected. Therefore, they filed a batch of Writ Petitions before this Court in W.P.Nos.16728 of 2012 and etc., batch wherein by order dated 03.07.2012, this Court set aside the rejections orders and directed the respondents to reconsider the claim of those petitioners. Para 9 of the said order reads as follows:-

"9. In the light of the said submissions, respective impugned orders dated 3.6.2011, 7.6.2011, 11.4.2011, 18.4.2011, 21.4.2011 are set aside. The respondents are directed to reconsider the claim made by the petitioners based on the Government Orders referred above, bearing-in-mind, the earlier orders and pass fresh orders. Necessary orders are directed to be passed within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

All the Writ Petitions are disposed of with the above directions. No costs."

2. In the cases on hand, of course, it is true that there was no claim made and as such, there is no rejection of their claim.

3. In my considered opinion, since this Court has taken a view earlier in the Batch of Writ Petitions in W.P.Nos.16728/2012 and etc., batch to direct the respondents to consider such representations based on the above Government Orders, I am of the view that the petitioners herein may also be extended the same benefit.

4. In such view of the matter, all the above Writ Petitions are disposed of with a direction to the respondents to consider the case of the petitioners in the light of the above said two Government Orders and in the light of the order passed by this Court in the Batch of Writ Petitions in W.P.Nos.16728/2012 and etc., batch. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are also closed."

4. In the light of the above said order passed by this Court and in the light of the aforesaid Government Orders, the third respondent is directed to consider the representation of the respective petitioners and pass orders by taking into consideration of the orders dated 21.9.2012 passed by this Court in W.P.Nos.25624 to 25628 of 2012, within a period of 3 months from date of receipt of a copy of this order.

5. In the result, the Writ Petitions are allowed. No costs.
