The appellant died during the currency of this intra court appeal. Even though sufficient time was given to the legal representatives to come on record, the fact remains that application was not filed for the said purpose. While adjourning the matter on 23 June 2017, we made it clear that as a final chance, time is extended for taking steps. Even today, the learned counsel for the appellant seeks adjournment. There is no need to keep the appeal pending after the death of the appellant. We therefore, close the intra court appeal as abated. No costs.
