2. The Lower Court has dismissed the petition to condone the delay in filing an appeal against the order passed by the Taxation Appellate Tribunal, Coimbatore, in I.A.No.124 of 2003 in C.M.A.CFR No.1900 of 2003, dated 31.03.2011, on the file of Principal District Judge, Coimbatore, holding that the reason for the delay was not specifically explained.

3. In similar circumstances, this Court in a batch of Civil Revision Petitions in CRP (NPD) No.844 of 2012 and etc., batch has condoned the delay, in the interest of justice, after giving fair opportunity to contest the case on merits, rather than shutting down the issue at the threshold on technicalities.

4. It is well settled that substantial justice shall prevail over technicalities. In the above said Civil Revision Petitions, this Court has condoned the delay, on condition that the petitioner in the respective Civil Revision Petitions, shall pay a sum of Rs.5,000/- to the learned counsel appearing for the respondent in the respective Civil Revision Petitions, within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the said order.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of this case and in the interest of justice that public money involved in the issue, this Court is also inclined to condone the delay on the same lines. Accordingly, the delay is condoned on condition that the petitioner shall pay a sum of Rs.5,000/- (Rupees Five Thousand Only) to the learned counsel for the respondent, within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. In the result, the order dated 31.03.2011, passed in I.A.No.124 of 2003 in C.M.A.CFR No.1900 of 2003, by the learned Principal District Judge, Coimbatore, is set aside and the Civil Revision Petition is allowed. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed.
