ORDER

[Order of the Court was made by M.JAICHANDREN,J]

This Habeas Corpus Petition has been filed by the wife of the detenu, namely, Mottai @ Stephen, aged about 24 years, son of Jayaseelan, to issue a Writ of Habeas Corpus, to call for the records, in No.634/BCDFGISSSV/2016, dated 2.7.2016, passed by the second respondent, detaining the detenu, under Section 3(1) of the Tamil Nadu Prevention of Dangerous Activities of Bootleggers, Drug Offenders, Forest Offenders, Goondas, Immoral Traffic Offenders, Sand Offenders, Slum Grabbers and Video Pirates Act, 1982 (Tamil Nadu Act 14 of 1982), branding him as a "Goonda", in the Central Prison, Puzhal, Chennai, and to quash the same and to direct the Respondents to produce the body of the detenu and to set him at liberty forthwith.

2. We have heard the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner, as well as the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the State and we have also perused the records, carefully.

3. Though several grounds have been raised in this Habeas Corpus Petition, the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner, has assailed the impugned detention order mainly on the ground that the detaining authority had stated, in paragraph No.4 of the order of detention, that the detenu Mottai @ Stephen is in remand, in P-1 Pulianthope Police Station Crime Nos.740/2016 and 752/2016, and the detenu had filed a bail application, for Crime No.740 of 2016, before the Court of Principal Sessions Judge, Chennai, in CrI.M.P.No.8400 of 2016, which had been dismissed, on 28.6.2016. The detenu had not moved any bail application, for Crime No.752 of 2016, so far. It had been further stated in the order of detention that the relatives of the detenu are taking action, to take him out on bail, by filing another bail application, for Crime No.740 of 2016 and a fresh bail application, for Crime No.752 of 2016, before the appropriate court. It had also been pointed out that no statements had been recorded from the relatives of the detenu with regard to the claim that they are taking steps to move bail applications, on behalf of the detenu, in the above said cases and no such statements had been furnished to the detenu.

4. The said submissions made by the learned counsel appearing on behalf of the petitioner had not been refuted by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing on behalf of the respondents.

5. It is noted from the records available that no statements had been recorded from the relatives concerned to substantiate the claim that they are taking steps to move bail applications on behalf of the detenu, to take him out on bail, in Crime Nos.740 of 2016 and 752 of 2016, on the file of P-1 Pulianthope Police Station, which are the fourth adverse case and ground case, respectively. In such circumstances, we find that there is non application of mind on the part of the detaining authority, in passing the detention order. Therefore, we are inclined to set aside the detention order.

6. Accordingly, the Habeas Corpus Petition is allowed and the impugned detention order, dated 2.7.2016, passed by the second respondent is set aside. The detenu is directed to be released, forthwith, unless his presence is required in connection with any other case.
