The relief sought for in these writ petitions is to implement the orders passed by the 1st respondent in proceedings dated 30.08.2011.

2.The learned counsel appearing on behalf of the writ petitioners state that in spite of the fact that the orders in favour of the writ petitioners have been issued in proceedings dated 30.08.2011, the same has not been implemented and the writ petitioners are deprived of the benefits of the orders passed by the 1st respondent dated 30.08.2011. However, the writ petitioners have not enclosed any copy of the representation in this writ petition. Thus, the petitioners are at liberty to submit a representation to the respondents within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of the copy of this order and if any such representation is received from the writ petitioners, then the respondents are directed to consider the same on merits and in accordance with law and pass orders within a period of twelve weeks thereafter.

3.Accordingly, the writ petitions stand disposed of. However, there shall be no orders as to costs.
