Though, the petitioner/school started as Government aided School, subsequently that was made as Government School. Therefore, the question of challenging the G.O., by which the direct payment was ordered by the Government to the teachers working in the then aided school does not arise.

2. Since, the aided school has been made as Government School, this writ petition has become infructuous.

3. Hence, this petition is dismissed as infructuous. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petition is closed. No costs.
