ORDER

By consent, this writ petition is taken up for final disposal. Mr.R.K. Gandhi, learned Standing Counsel accepts notice on behalf of the respondents .

2. The petitioner joined as a "Conductor" in the erstwhile Annai Sathya Transport Corporation, Dharmapuri, on 01.05.1987 and after various mergers and demergers, the erstwhile Corporation was named as Tamil Nadu State Transport Corporation (Salem) Limited and at the time of his retirement on 30.06.2012, the petitioner was serving as "Selection Grade Conductor". The grievance expressed by the petitioner is that though he has retired as early as on 30.06.2012, the terminal benefits like Gratuity, Leave encashment (Earned & Old Medical Leave), Leave Surrender amount while in service, ERBS amount, D.A. Arrears, have not been settled. In this regard, he has submitted representation dated 25.11.2016 to the respondents. Since the said representation has not been disposed of, the petitioner has come before this Court with this writ petition.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the matter in issue is squarely covered by the common Judgment dated 12.06.2015 made in W.A.No.(MD)Nos.383 to 457 of 2015, [K.Rajendran and others Vs. Tamil Nadu State Transport Corporation, represented by its Managing Director, Madurai-10 and three others], wherein, the Division Bench has passed orders, ordering payment of terminal benefits, in 12 equal monthly installments, carrying interest at the rate of 6% p.a. and taking into consideration the hardship and misery being suffered by the petitioner, prays for appropriate orders.

4. This Court heard the submissions of Mr.K.Venkataramani, learned Additional Advocate General assisted by Mr.R.K. Gandhi, learned Standing Counsel for the respondents, who would submit that in the light of the above cited Judgment, appropriate orders may be passed.

5. This Court considered the rival submissions and also perused the materials placed before it.

6. It is relevant to extract the orders passed in W.A.No. (MD)Nos.383 to 457 of 2015:

"The learned Additional Advocate General submits that he has obtained written instructions vide letter No.7945/B/2015-2 dated 11/06/2015 that the terminal benefits of the appellants would be settled through twelve equal monthly installments, carrying interest of 6% p.a.

2. The said statement is thus taken on record and the respondents will be bound by the same. We have to keep in mind the judicial pronouncement of the Honourable Supreme Court in D.D.Tewari (D) Thr. Lrs. Vs. Utta Haryana Bujli Vitran Nigam Limited & Ors [2014 (e) scale -78] wherein it is held that in case of any delay in making the payment of the installments, the interest payable would become 18% p.a., for the delayed period apart from any other remedy which may be available to the appellants for non-compliance of undertaking given to this Court.

3. The instalments to be paid from July 2015 and each instalments should be paid on or before 7th of each month.

4. The Writ Appeals are disposed of accordingly. No costs. Consequently, the connected miscellaneous petitions are closed."

7. A similar issue came up for consideration in a batch of cases and one such case is W.P.No.42555 of 2016 and this Court, after hearing the submissions of the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner therein, as well as the submission of Mr.K.Venkataramani, learned Additional Advocate General, by following the above cited Judgment, disposed of the said writ petition on 19.01.2017, the operative portion of which is extracted below:-

"10. In the light of the above facts and circumstances, the State Transport Undertakings/Transport Corporations shall settle all the terminal benefits due and payable to the petitioner in the light of the common judgment rendered in W.A.No.(MD)Nos.383 to 457 of 2015 and the installments to be paid from 01.04.2017. The Administrative Department shall ensure that there is no default as to the compliance of the orders passed by this Court in this regard. It is also made clear that neither the Transport Corporation nor the Administrative Department shall drive the retired employees to approach this Court for similar relief and in the light of the fact that the above orders equally binds them shall make every endeavour to pass similar orders at least on the date of retirement of the employees. It is further made clear that the non compliance of the order passed by this Court may visit the concerned respondents with grave consequences by way of contempt proceedings".

8. In the light of the above facts and circumstances and also in the light of the earlier orders passed by this Court, the terminal benefits due and payable to the petitioner shall be paid by the respondents in 12 equal monthly instalments with interest at 6% p.a. and the 1st instalment shall commence from 1st June, 2017 and to be continuously paid until settling the entire arrears. The respondents shall also pay pension periodically to the petitioner without any default. It is made clear that in case of any delay in making the payment of the instalments, the interest payable would become 18% p.a., for the delayed period apart from any other remedy which may be available to the petitioner for non-compliance of undertaking given to this Court.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly. No costs.
