O R D E R

The petitioner has filed this Writ Petition, praying to quash the order passed by the first respondent, dated 09.12.2016, whereby and whereunder, the lease hold right granted to the petitioner has been terminated and vacant possession of the premises has been sought to be handed over.

2. Today, when the Writ Petition is taken up for hearing, the learned counsel for first respondent has fairly submitted that, the petitioner would be issued with a show cause notice, calling for his explanation/reply and only after affording him reasonable opportunity of being heard, appropriate orders would be passed. Therefore, he would submit that the petitioner need not apprehend that, pursuant to the impugned order, he will be evicted from the subject premises forthwith. It is his further submission that the apprehension of the petitioner is totally unwarranted.

2. The above said submission is placed on record. The Writ Petition is closed. However, liberty is granted to the petitioner to approach this Court in case has any grievance qua the order to be passed by the first respondent. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
