Today, the Writ Petition is listed under the caption "for orders". There is no representation for the petitioner. It is to be noted that on an earlier occasion, when the matter was taken up for hearing on 25.07.2017, there was no representation for the petitioner and hence, the Writ Petition was directed to be listed under the caption "for dismissal". Subsequently, when the writ petition was take up for hearing on 18.08.2017, this Court heard the learned counsel for the parties and directed to list the Writ Petition under the caption "for orders" today. Accordingly, it is listed today under the caption "for orders". Even today (01.09.2017), inspite of the matter being listed under the caption "for orders", and the name of the counsel for the petitioner having been called twice, there is no representation for the petitioner. This shows that the petitioner is not interested in prosecuting the matter. Hence, the writ petition is dismissed for default. No costs.
