Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that he has already filed a memo, stating as follows:

"It is humbly submitted that the writ petition has been filed challenging the order of penalty of "Discharge from Bank's service" passed against the petitioner herein and this Honourable Court issued Rule Nisi and the respondents have filed counter affidavit. When the matter was first listed before this Honourable Court for final hearing, a letter was sent to the petitioner informing the same. However there was no response from the petitioner's side and upon local enquiry through another client, it was learnt that the petitioner passed away some time ago. No legal representative of the petitioner approached the Counsel in this regard."

3. The learned counsel appearing for the writ petitioner once again reiterated that he is unable to get instructions from the client and accordingly, based on the memo already filed on 28.03.2017, the writ petition may be disposed of.
