

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT MADRAS

DATED: 16.08.2017

CORAM

THE HON'BLE Mr. JUSTICE M.DHANDAPANI

W.P.No.27861 of 2004

R.Thangammal

... Petitioner

Vs.

The Director of Panchayat,
Kuralagam,
Chennai-108.

... Respondent

Prayer : Petition filed under Article 226 of The Constitution of India praying to issue a Writ of Mandamus, to direct the respondent to dispose the petitioner's written representation made on 18.09.2004.

For Petitioner : Mr.C.Prakasam

For Respondent : Mr.A.Zakkir Hussain
Government Advocate

O R D E R

Heard Mr.C.Prakasam, learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and Mr.A.Zakkir Hussain, learned Government Advocate, appearing for the respondent.

2. The petitioner has filed this writ petition, praying to direct the respondent to dispose of her written representation dated 18.09.2004.

3. On a perusal of affidavit, the petitioner's brother-in-law and her mother-in-law colluded with the Executive Officer of Uppiliapuram Town Panchayat and filed a Civil Suit in O.S.No.123/2003, against her husband, before the District Muncif Court, Thuraiyur, for declaration and declared that the entire benefits accrued in favour of her mother-in-law and her brother-in-law.

4. In the said suit, they obtained the signature of the petitioner's husband and accordingly, the suit was decreed. After knowing the above position, the petitioner/daughter-in-law has made a representation to the Director of Town Panchayat. The said representation is not maintainable, since already there is a civil dispute in between the legal heirs and without adding them as necessary parties in this writ petition, she made a representation directly to the Director of Town Panchayat, which is nothing but abuse in process of law.

5. Hence, the writ petition is dismissed, as the Director of Town Panchayat is no way connected with this issue. No costs.
