The present writ petition has been filed challenging the grant of permission to ply Mini bus in a particular route. The 2nd respondent was granted permission to ply Mini bus from Monday Market to Kulachel.

2. The writ petitioner is challenging the route granted in favour of the second respondent as contrary to the scheme itself. But admittedly, the permission granted in favour of the second respondent is valid only for 5 years from the date of issue of the permission, i.e. from 13.02.2001. Hence, granted permit itself having been lapsed in the year 2005, no further adjudication is required in this Writ Petition. If the writ petitioner-Transport Corporation is still aggrieved, it is left open to them to challenge any further permit if granted in favour of the second respondent. With these observations, the Writ Petition stands dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
