O R D E R

The writ petition has been filed challenging the order of transfer, which has been passed by the fourth respondent dated 17.06.2004.

2. When the case is taken up for hearing, the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the first respondent reported that since the petitioner, who is aged about 65 years has already retired from service, the relief sought for in the writ petition has become infructuous and nothing survives for further adjudication. There is no representation for the petitioner.

3. Recording the submission made by the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the first respondent, the writ petition is dismissed as infructuous. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
