2.The learned counsel for the petitioner further states that on the date of furnishing sureties before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam on 11.07.2017, one of the sureties was rejected by the concerned Magistrate stating that not satisfied with that surety.

3.He further submitted that on 12.07.2017, on that time of executing sureties, the defacto complainant threatened the petitioner. Therefore, a complaint was lodged before the Thirumangalam Town Police Station and F.I.R was registered. The petitioner has taken treatment in the Government hospital and thereafter in the private hospital also. Hence the petitioner is not able to furnish the sureties within the stipulated time. Medical report was also produced by the petitioner herein.

4.The learned counsel for the petitioner further submitted that this Court may direct the petitioner to execute the bond before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Madurai instead of Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam.

5.Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the fact that the petitioner got life threat by the defacto complainant and the case was registered against him before the Thirumangalam Town Police Station. This Court is inclined to extend 10 days time to the petitioner to surrender and this Court modified the condition of the order passed by this Court on 23.06.2017 and directs the petitioner to execute the sureties before the Judicial Magistrate No.II, Madurai within a period of 10 days from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6.The Judicial Magistrate No.II, Madurai is directed to send the surety papers after executing the sureties by the petitioner herein to the Judicial Magistrate, Thirumangalam.
