The petitioner filed this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition for a direction to the first respondent to forward the CD file from Rajouri Garden Police Station, West District, New Delhi and further direct the respondents 2 to 4 to take action to get back and complete the investigation in the said case and file a final report before the Court concerned as expeditiously as possible.

FIR in Crime No.19 of 2010, on the file of the Inspector of Police, All Women Police Station, Thiruverumbur, Trichy District. However, after elaborate discussion, this Court in its order, dated 02.11.2016, directed the Commissioner of Police, New Delhi to return the entire case file to the first respondent, the Inspector of Police, All Women Police Station, Thiruverumbur, Trichy District and further directed the first respondent that on receipt of the same, the first respondent shall investigate the case in accordance with law and file a final report before the court concerned as expeditiously as possible.

The learned counsel for the petitioner would submit that though the petitioner herein arrayed as second respondent/defacto complainant in the said petition, filed this miscellaneous petition in the said Criminal Original Petition in CrI.O.P.(MD).No.18819 of 2012, he restricted his claim to issue a direction to the concerned respondents to comply the order passed by this Court in the said petition, dated 02.11.2016.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the intervenor conceded the limited request made by the learned counsel for the petitioner in the miscellaneous petition.

5. The learned Government Advocate (Crl.side) appearing for the State on instructions, would submit that as per the direction of this Court, the Commissioner of Police, New Delhi forwarded the CD file directly to the Superintendent of Police, Trichy. However, the file was returned back to the Commissioner of Police, New Delhi, with a request to send the file through the Director General of Police, Tamil Nadu. Since the procedure may take sometime, the learned Government Advocate (Crl. side), seeks further time to complete the said procedure.

6. Considering the above submissions, this Court directs the first respondent to complete the said procedure within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order and also directs the respondent Nos. 2 to 4 to complete the investigation and to file the final report as expeditiously as possible. Accordingly, this Criminal Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
