4. After the registration of the First Information Report, it appears that the petitioners and the second respondent/defacto complainant have settled their dispute amicably out of Court, on the advise of the elders and well wishers. The parties also have entered into a compromise. The Joint Compromise Memo signed by the petitioners and the defacto complainant along with their counsel is produced before this Court. In the Joint Compromise Memo, it is stated that the parties have settled their dispute amicably and that the second respondent agreed to withdraw the complaint. He also stated that he has no objection to quash the criminal case. Further, it was agreed in the Joint Compromise Memo that the petitioners 3 and 4 are entitled to withdraw the amount which they have deposited pursuant to the direction of this Court in CrI.O.P. (MD) No.7936 of 2017.

5. The parties, namely the petitioners and the second respondent appeared today before this Court and expressed in unequivocal terms that they have signed in the Joint Compromise Memo on their own free will and volition. The identity of the parties are verified with reference to the authenticated documents produced by the parties before this Court. The identity of the parties are also confirmed by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) through the first respondent police.

6. Having regard to the specific terms of Joint Compromise Memo, this Court is of the view that no useful or fruitful purpose will be served by keeping this matter pending. Hence, on the basis of the Joint Compromise Memo signed by the parties, the Criminal Original petition is allowed and the criminal case in Crime No.191 of 2017 on the file of the first respondent herein is quashed in toto. The Joint Compromise Memo signed by the parties shall form part of the order. It is also seen that the parties have agreed that the petitioners 3 and 4 are entitled to withdraw the amount which they have deposited pursuant to the direction of this Court. This Court also permit them to withdraw the amount. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous petition is closed.
