3. It appears that the petitioner introduced one Sevu Annamalai to one Gold Smith, by name, Parasakthi Asari, for the purpose of making gold jewels for "Thiruthani Murugan" temple. It is seen that the said Sevu Annamalai, after receiving the gold jewels, cheated the said Gold Smith. It is on account of the fact that the petitioner alone introduced the said Sevu Annamalai to the said Gold Smith, a complaint was lodged against the said Sevu Annamalai and in connection with the said complaint, the petitioner is also called for enquiry, as he was the one who introduced the accused to the complainant.

4. It is submitted by the learned counsel for the petitioner that the petitioner is frequently called by the first respondent police under the guise of the enquiry and that the petitioner is being harassed unnecessarily.

5. When no specific allegation is made against the petitioner in the said complaint, the petitioner need not be harassed. Even if the presence of the petitioner is required for any enquiry, the same also can be done only after issuing summons prescribing date and time and in the manner known to law.
