3. On the basis of a complaint given by the second respondent, a case was registered in Crime No.22 of 2017 for the offences punishable under Sections 147,148,342,324, 506(ii) and 294(b) of IPC against the petitioners.

4. The petitioners in this petition and also the connected Criminal Original Petitions viz., Crl.O.P(MD).Nos.10949 to 10952 2017 are the parties belong to the same village and several incidents of crime reported due to some mis-understanding, wordy quarrel and petty clash, and cases were registered involving the petitioners in all the Criminal Original Petitions.

5. It appears that all the parties have settled their dispute amicably, on the advise of the elders and well wishers. Both the petitioners and the de facto complainant have entered into a compromise and a joint compromise memo signed by the respective parties in the presence of the counsels have been produced before this Court. As per the joint compromise memo dated 26.06.2017, the second respondent viz., de facto complainant has no objection for quashing the criminal proceedings in Crime No.22 of 2017 pending on the file of the first respondent.

6. The parties except A2 are present before this Court and expressed in unequivocal terms, that the Joint Compromise Memo signed by them was on their own will and volition. The identity of the parties are verified with reference to the authenticated documents produced by the parties before this Court. The identity of the parties are also confirmed by the learned Government Advocate(Criminal side) through the first respondent police.

7. In view of the Compromise Memo signed by the parties, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose will be served by keeping this matter pending. Hence, the Criminal Original petition is allowed and the proceedings in Crime No.22 of 2017 on the file of the first respondent is quashed in toto, on the basis of the compromise memo signed by the parties concerned before this Court and the Joint Compromise Memo signed by the parties shall form part of the order.
