The petitioner, who is arrayed as accused No.2, apprehends arrest at the hands of the respondent police for the offences punishable under Sections 294(b), 323 and 506(i) of IPC r/w Section 4 of Tamil Nadu Prohibition of Harassment of Women Act, 2002, in Crime No.333 of 2017, on the file of the respondent police, seeks anticipatory bail.

2. The case of the prosecution is that the son of the defacto complainant has fell in love with one Pinachi and both were married without consent of the elders i.e., family members of the petitioner as well as the defacto complainant. Thereafter, on 19.10.2017, the son of the defacto complainant and his wife came to the defacto complainant's house by knowing that the petitioner went to the defacto complainant's house and attacked the couples and abused them. 4. The learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the State, on instructions, would submit that he has also confirmed the statement made by the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, I am inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner with certain conditions. Accordingly, the petitioner is ordered to be released on bail in the event of arrest or on his appearance, within a period of fifteen days from the date on which the order copy is made ready, before the learned Judicial Magistrate Court, Aruppukottai, Virudhunagar District on condition that the petitioner shall execute a bond for a sum of Rs.25,000/- (Rupees twenty five thousand only), with two sureties each for a like sum to the satisfaction of the respondent Police or to the Police Officer, who intends to arrest or to the satisfaction of the learned Magistrate concerned and on further condition that:
