3. The petitioners are the accused nos.1 to 5 in Criminal

Proceedings in C.C.No.70 of 2013 on the file of the the learned Judicial Magistrate, Padmanabhapuram. On the basis of the complaint lodged by the second respondent / de facto complainant, a case was registered by the first respondent police in Crime No.575 of 2012 for the offences under Sections 147, 342, 323 and 506(ii) of IPC against the petitioners. Thereafter, the first respondent police filed a charge sheet before the learned Judicial Magistrate, Padmanabhapuram, and the same was taken on file in C.C.No.70 of 2013.

4. It appears that parties viz., petitioners and the second respondent / de facto complainant have settled their dispute amicably out of Court, at the instigation of the elders and well wishers and they have also entered into a compromise. A joint compromise memo signed by the parties concerned in the presence of their respective counsels is produced before this Court.

5. As per the joint compromise memo, the petitioners and the second respondent, who have appeared before this Court have stated in unequivocal terms that the Joint Compromise Memo was signed by them on their own will and volition. The identities of the parties are verified with reference to the authenticated documents produced by the parties before this Court. The identity of the parties are also confirmed by the learned Additional Public Prosecutor through the first respondent Police.

6. In the Compromise Memo, the de facto complainant has agreed to withdraw the criminal case and the petitioners and the second respondent have requested this Court to quash the proceedings in C.C.No.70 of 2013 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Padmanabhapuram.

7. In the said circumstances, this Court is of the view that no useful purpose will be served by keeping this matter pending. Hence, on the basis of the compromise memo signed by the parties, the Criminal Original petition is allowed and the proceedings pending in C.C.No.70 of 2013 on the file of the learned Judicial Magistrate, Padmanabhapuram is quashed in toto. The Joint Compromise Memo dated 20.11.2017 signed by the parties shall form part of the order.
