(Crime No.288 of 2017) . . . Respondent/Complainant

Prayer: Criminal Original Petition is filed under Section 482 of Criminal Procedure Code, to call for records relating to the First Information Report in Crime No.288 of 2017, dated 01.09.2017 on the file of the Sub Inspector of Police, Amathur Police Station, Virudhunagar District and to quash the same.

For Petitioner : Mr.L.Prabhu

For Respondent : Mr.K.S.Durai Pandiyan,
Additional Public Prosecutor.

ORDER

This Criminal Original petition is filed for quashing the First Information Report in Crime No.288 of 2017, dated 01.09.2017 on the file of the Sub Inspector of Police, Amathur Police Station, Virudhunagar District.

2. Heard the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent.

3. It appears that the respondent has lodged a complaint and the same was registered in Crime No.288 of 2017 for the alleged offence under Section 107 of Cr.P.C. The copy of the First Information Report reveals that the respondent has not registered a complaint for any cognizable offence. The dispute between the two groups has been recorded in the First Information Report and the respondent has recommended the case to the Executive Magistrate/Revenue Divisional Officer, Aruppukottai, Virudhunagar District, for taking action under Section 107 of Cr.P.C.

4. The purpose and object behind registration of crime is stated to be to enable the Executive Magistrate to initiate action under Section 107 of Cr.P.C. Since the First Information Report does not disclose any cognizable offence under any of the provisions of I.P.C., or any other statute, the First Information Report, as such is liable to be quashed. It is not necessary for the respondent to register the First Information Report in the manner, as it was done by the respondent.

5. Section 107 of Cr.P.C., reads as follows:

(1) When an Executive Magistrate receives information that any person is likely to commit a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquillity or to do any wrongful act that may probably occasion a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquillity and is of opinion that there is sufficient ground for proceeding, he may in the manner hereinafter provided, require such person to show cause why he should not be ordered to execute a bond with or without sureties for keeping the peace for such period, not exceeding one year, as the Magistrate thinks fit.

(2) Proceeding under this section may be taken before any Executive Magistrate when either the place where the breach of the peace or disturbance is apprehended is within his local jurisdiction or there is within such jurisdiction a person who is likely to commit a breach of the peace or disturb the public tranquillity or to do any wrongful act as aforesaid beyond such jurisdiction.

6. Section 107 of Cr.P.C. empowers the Executive Magistrate to issue show cause notice as against any group or individual, to show cause why he or they should not be ordered to execute a bond with or without sureties for keeping peace for a period not exceeding one year, based on the information received by the police or other officials.

7. The learned counsel for the petitioners relied upon an order of this Court in Cr1.O.P.No.7591 of 2017, in the case of Rajkumar vs State represented by Inspector of Police, wherein, a learned single Judge of this Court quashed the First Information Report, which was registered under Section 107 of Cr.P.C. It is stated in the order that whenever the police receives information, it may necessitate action by an Executive Magistrate under Section 107 to 110 of Cr.P.C. and that the same shall be entered in a separate register and requisition for action shall be made to the Executive

8. Having regard to the position that registration of First

Information Report under Section 107 of Cr.P.C., is not required for any action to be taken under Section 107 of Cr.P.C., and that it is only the information that is required for taking action under Section 107 of Cr.P.C., by the Executive Magistrate, this Criminal Original Petition is allowed and the First Information Report in Crime No.288 of 2017 on the file of the respondent police is quashed. However, it is open to the respondent police to furnish the required information after registration of the incident in a separate register and the Executive Magistrate shall take appropriate action as per the required information in accordance with Sections 107 to 110 of Cr.P.C., having regard to the peculiar circumstances. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous petition is closed.
