This petition is filed to direct the 1st respondent to reinvestigate the case in Crime No.75 of 2010 by appointing any other competent police officer.

2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would contend that the petitioner is the elder sister of the deceased Sivakarthick, who was murdered by inflicting cut and stab injuries indiscriminately followed by property dispute and that a case in Crime No.75 of 2010 stands registered based on the complaint given by the father of the petitioner and that initially, the case was registered against five persons and thereafter, final report was filed by arraying 7 persons as accused in addition to the persons shown in the FIR and that though, the final report was filed in the month of August 2010, the copy of the final report has not been furnished to the accused till date. It is further submitted that the petitioner's father died on 18.11.2011 in a suspicious circumstances. Hence, he prayed that the case has to be re-investigated by the other competent officer to find out the real facts.

3. Per contra, the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) appearing for the respondents would submit that after conducting proper investigation, final report was filed before the court concerned and the case was taken as PRC No.209 of 2010. Hence, he prayed for the dismissal of the petition.

4. It is seen from the records that the case was taken on file by the learned Judicial Magistrate, Lalgudi and after completing investigation, final report was filed in PRC No.209 of 2010.

5. The contention of the petitioner is that final report has not been properly filed and the case has to be re-investigated by a competent officer.

6. The case was taken on file as early as 03.08.2010 and posted to 17.08.2010 for hearing. After a very long day, the present petition is filed for re-investigation only in the month of January 2017. Hence, this court finds no reason to order for reinvestigation and accordingly, the petition is liable to be dismissed.
