On the complaint lodged by the second respondent, the first respondent police registered a case in Crime No.450 of 2016 for offences under Sections 341, 294(b), 324 and 109 of the Indian Penal Code against the petitioners herein, for quashing which, the petitioners and the defacto complainant are before this Court on the ground that they have arrived at a compromise.

2. Today, when the matter was taken up for hearing, Mr.K.Balasubramanian, Special Sub-Inspector of Police, W1 Thirunagar Police Station, appeared on behalf of Thiruparangundram Police Station. The defacto complainant is present and the petitioners are also present and their identifications were also verified by this Court, in addition to the confirmation of the identity of the parties by the learned Government Advocate (Criminal side) through Mr.K.Balasubramanian, Special Sub-Inspector of Police, W1 Thirunagar Police Station.

3. The petitioners and the second respondent have filed a joint compromise memo dated 09.03.2017, wherein, it is stated as follows:

"3. It is submitted that now on the advice of the elders, both the petitioners and the defacto complainant are the same villagers and they have entered into compromise with regard to the said case and they themselves settled their disputes amicably. Therefore the 2nd respondent does not want to proceed with the case further and he has no objections to quash the FIR."

The joint compromise memo dated 09.03.2017 shall form part of this order.
