Dismissing the Petition filed by the Petitioner to direct the respondent Police to register his complaint, the present revision has been filed.

2.The Petitioner earlier given a complaint against his father-in-law, mother-in-law and brother-in-law and others alleging that they have trespassed into the house and taken away a double barrel gun which belongs to the Petitioner and also abused the Petitioner and his mother in filthy language. Hence he has given a complaint against them and that was not registered by the respondent Police and no action has been taken. In the circumstances, the Petitioner filed an application before the Judicial Magistrate No.I, Karur to register his complaint and the trial Court, considering the materials available before the Court, had dismissed the said application. Now challenging the same, the present revision has been filed.

3.Heard the submissions of Mr.M.Saravanan, learned counsel for the Petitioner and Mr.C.Mayilvahana Rajendran, learned Additional Public Prosecutor appearing for the respondent state and considered the materials on record.

4.Today when the matter came up for hearing, the learned Additional Public Prosecutor represented that based on the complaint given by the Petitioner, enquiry is pending. In the above circumstances, the respondent/Police is directed to conduct enquiry on the complaint given by the Petitioner within a period of two weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, following the dictum laid down by the Honourable Supreme Court in Lalitha Kumari vs. Govt. of U.P & others [2013 (4) Crimes 243 (SC)].

5.With the above direction, the Criminal Revision Case is disposed of.
