2. The first respondent filed a suit in O.S.No.185 of 2013 before the District Munsif Court, Kulithalai against the respondents 2 to 15 seeking declaration declaring that the suit property belongs to A/M Periakandiamman temple and for a consequential relief directing the defendants to issue the revenue records in favour of the deity and also permanent injunction restraining the defendants from interfering with the peaceful possession and enjoyment of the devotees from celebrating poojas, prayers and offering to the plaintiff deity during Adi 18-21 and all auspicious days either forming road or in any manner whatsoever.

3. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner is no way connected with the suit property in S.F.No.175/24, T.K.Krishnarayapuram East, Krishnarayapuram, Karur District. The suit has been filed in the year 2013 and the written statement filed and the issues were also framed on 20.10.2014. Thereafter, the matter was posted under the caption for trial and till today, there is no progress in the suit. He would further submit that the petitioner is a senior citizen and unnecessarily he is harassed. Therefore, the petitioner has come forward to file the Civil Revision Petition before this Court for early disposal of the suit in O.S.No.185 of 2013.

4. Since the revision petition itself is for early disposal, no notice is necessary to the respondents.

5. Considering the facts and circumstances of the case and also considering the age of the petitioner, without expressing any view on the merits of the case, the learned District Munsif Court, Kulithalai is directed to dispose of the suit in O.S.No.185 of 2013 within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6. The Civil Revision Petition is disposed of with the above direction. No costs.
