JUDGMENT

[Judgment of the Court was delivered by G.R.SWAMINATHAN, J.]

The Government of Tamil Nadu is on appeal, questioning the order dated 12 July 2016, whereby W.P.(MD).No.6907 of 2015 was allowed.

2.The said writ petition was filed by the respondent herein seeking a direction for sending a revised pension proposal by including half of the service put in by him as Thalayari for the period from 14 June 1989 to 31 May 1995.

3. According to the petitioner, he was serving as Office Assistant in Taluk Office, Melur and he reached the age of superannuation on 31 July 2010. But, when sending his pension proposals, only the period of service rendered by him in regular time scale of pay i.e. from 01 June 1995 to 31 July 2010 was taken into account for sanction of pension. The continuous service of 6 years on consolidated pay put in by him as permanent Thalayari was not at all considered for the purpose of calculating pension. Seeking revision of his pension, he filed the said W.P.(MD).No. 6907 of 2015. The learned single Judge noted that the issue was no longer res-integra. Following the earlier Division Bench decision of this Court in W.A.(MD).No.303 of 2010, the said W.P.(MD).No. 6907 of 2015 was allowed by directing the appellants herein to sanction and pay pension to the writ petitioner by taking into account the service rendered by him prior to 01 June 1995 in the post of Village Assistant/Thalayari.

4. Before us, the learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the appellants contended that the writ petitioner was working only as part-time Thalayari and that he was not in regular time scale of pay and that therefore, the question of reckoning 50% of his service as Thalayari for providing pension would not arise. On the other hand, the learned counsel appearing for the respondent/writ petitioner filed a compilation of the earlier orders passed by this Court.

5. We carefully went through the order dated 16 February 2009 dismissing W.A.(MD).No.16 of 2009. The present case is absolutely similar. The learned Additional Government Pleader could not dispute that the case on hand is squarely covered by the earlier decisions of this Court. We find no merit in this appeal.

6. Accordingly, the writ appeal stands dismissed. No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petitions are also dismissed.
