COMMON ORDER

These Writ Petitions are filed challenging the order of the third respondent in his proceedings No. ப.மு.(அ1)/2950/2014, நாள் 24.03.2017.

2. Mr.S.Muthalraj, learned counsel for the petitioners submits that against the order of the third respondent, the petitioners can prefer appeals, however, since the petitioners felt, it was not an effective remedy, these Writ Petitions came to be filed.

3. Mr.A.Muthukaruppan, learned Additional Government Pleader would submit that when the alternative effective remedy is available to the petitioners, the present Writ Petitions cannot be entertained.

4. Considering the above submissions, this Court is of the opinion that the petitioners have to avail the alternative remedy. Hence, these Writ Petitions are disposed of with liberty to the petitioners to file appeals before the second respondent against the order of the third respondent. If appeals are filed within a period of two weeks, the second respondent shall consider the same and pass orders on merits and in accordance with law, as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of six months.

5. Accordingly, these Writ Petitions are disposed of. No Costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
