3. According to the petitioner, his prayer, as recommended by the first respondent in Na.Ka.No.9585/2017/P1, dated 23.06.2017, has not yielded any result and hence he is before this Court.

4.The learned counsel appearing for the second respondent fairly submitted that the TASMAL is inclined to accede with the prayer of the petitioner, for which, they have already submitted a representation dated 07.08.2017, in Na.Ka.No.13426/2017/A5, to the third respondent, seeking necessary police protection, which is said to be pending.

5.Such being the case, this Court, without going into the merits of the case, directs the third respondent to consider the representation of the second respondent dated 07.08.2017 and act as expeditiously as possible and render assistance to the second respondent, so as to comply with the directions of the first respondent, dated 23.06.2017. Such an exercise shall be completed within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

6.The writ petition is disposed of as above. No costs.
