By consent, the Writ Petition is taken up for final disposal and the admission stage itself.

2. Heard the learned counsel for the petitioner and the learned Additional Advocate General assisted by the learned Special Government Pleader for the respondents.

3. This Writ Petition has been filed questioning the correctness of the impugned disqualification slip, dated 09.08.2017, holding that she was disqualified in the long jump event on the ground that except stating the word 'long jump', nowhere, any reason has been assigned for disqualification.

4. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner would submit that the petitioner being a woman candidate shall be given second chance to prove her efficiency, as there is no Government servant in her family.

5. The learned Additional Advocate General Assisted by the learned Special Government Pleader appearing for the respondents, by producing copies of Coding Sheet and Lapse Sheet signed by the petitioner, submitted that clear reason has been assigned for disqualification, since she committed foul play, while participating the long jump event.

6. A perusal of the lapse sheet shows that the petitioner found ineligible, as she had committed foul play in the long jump event. Therefore, this Court is not able to find any merit in this Writ Petition.
