3.It is submitted on behalf of the respondents that the impugned order does not fix any liability for service tax on the petitioner but merely requires certain documents to be produced by him to examine whether the service rendered by him attracts service tax or not and that it is neither a show cause notice nor a final conclusion arrived by the second respondent, and in such circumstances it is open to the petitioner to submit the documents required by the second respondent and also other materials to support of his contention that the service offered by him to the tourists does not fall under any liability for payment for service tax.

5.In view of the aforesaid submission made by the respondents before this Court, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission of this Court to withdraw the Writ Petition and he has also made an endorsement to that effect.

6.Recording the said endorsement, this Writ Petition is dismissed as withdrawn with liberty to the petitioner to place all the aforesaid documents with other materials to support his claim. If any adverse order is passed against the petitioner by the second respondent, it is open to the petitioner to challenge the same in the manner recognized by law.
