2.The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner has advanced his argument on the basis of averments made in the writ petition.

3.The learned Additional Government Pleader appearing for the respondents has contended to the effect that the Government is going to construct a Veterinary Hospital in Survey No.899, Thotanoothu Village.

4.Further on the side of the petitioner relevant document has not been filed for the purpose of showing as to who is the owner of Survey No.898. Further the petitioner is not residing in Survey No.898. Under the said circumstances, this writ petition is nothing, but frivolous and the same deserves to be dismissed.

5.In fine, this writ petition is dismissed without costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous Petition is dismissed.
