3.It is seen from the records that the second respondent has rejected the representation alleged to have been given by the petitioner mainly on the ground of communal problem. The reason assigned by the second respondent cannot be accepted. Under the said circumstances, this Court is inclined to pass the following order.

4. In fine, this writ petition is allowed in part without costs and the impugned order dated 06.03.2017 passed by the second respondent is quashed. The second respondent is directed to consider the representation alleged to have been given by the petitioner and dispose of the same within a period of two days.
