After arguing for sometime, the learned counsel for the petitioner seeks permission of this Court to withdraw this writ petition. He also made an endorsement to that effect. Recording the same, the writ petition is dismissed as withdrawn.

2. The learned counsel appearing for the petitioner stated that the petitioner may be given opportunity to adjudicate the issue before the competent civil Court. For resorting to any common law, no direction need be given. It is always open to the petitioner to workout his remedy in the civil Court.

No costs. Consequently, connected Miscellaneous petition is also dismissed.
