3.It is seen from the records that on 17.03.2017, a representation has been given. But the same has been rejected by the second respondent simply on the ground of law and order problem. The reason given by the second respondent is not proper. Under the said circumstances, this Court is inclined to pass the following order.

4.In fine, this writ petition is allowed in part without costs and the impugned order dated 17.03.2017 passed in 1/MIKE/L3PS/2017 by the second respondent is quashed. The second respondent is directed to consider the representation alleged to have been given by the petitioner afresh and pass suitable orders on merits within a period of two days.
