As the issue involved in both the petitions are similar in nature, they are disposed of by this common order.

2. By consent, these writ petitions are taken up for final disposal.

3. These writ petitions have been filed, questioning the impugned auction notice of the third respondent dated 10.03.2017 and also for a direction to the respondents to extend the license period, by considering the representation of the petitioners.

4. When the matter is taken up for hearing today, it is represented by the learned Counsel on either side that the pursuant to the notice dated 10.03.2017, auction was conducted, in which, the family members of the petitioners came to be the successful bidders.

5. In such a view of the matter, nothing survives for further adjudication and these writ petitions are accordingly closed, leaving it open to the petitioners to participate in the auction, as and when conducted by the authorities, in future. No costs. Consequently, connected miscellaneous petitions are closed.
