2.Admittedly, the petitioner has already approached the Services, E-courts and e-services/ filed a civil suit against the fourth respondent. When that being the factual position, the petitioner can only seek for redressal of any grievance in the said suit itself, when admittedly, the parties against whom the petitioner seeks the present relief in this writ petition, includes a private party, namely, the fourth respondent herein against whom also the said suit is pending. Therefore, this Court is of the view that this writ petition cannot be entertained as it is for the petitioner to approach the very same Civil Court and seek for any interim relief by impleading the official respondents as party defendants, if at all, the petitioner is having any grievance against those official respondents.

3. With the above observation, the writ petition is dismissed as not maintainable. No costs.
