2. The case of the revision petitioner is that in the partition suit, the proposed defendants viz., the Commissioner, Aruppukottai Municipality and Assistant Junior Engineer, Tamil Nadu Electricity Board are necessary parties, since they are giving building plan approval and electricity service connection to the suit property.

3. The trial Court has found that these two officials are not necessary parties, since the matter pertaining to the title and not regarding the amenities or facilities provided by the Government officials to the said property. This Court totally concurs with the view of the trial Court. Hence, this Civil Revision Petition is dismissed. No costs. Connected Miscellaneous Petition is closed.
