COMMON ORDER

These writ petitions have been filed to set aside the impugned orders passed by the Principal Sub Judge, Madurai.

2. The learned Senior counsel appearing the petitioner would fairly submit that the petitioner has no objection only for impleading the first respondent as legal heir of the deceased and not otherwise and further submitted that the claim against the second and third respondents may be given up, since no relief is sought against them.

<https://hcservices.e-governance.gov.in/hcservices/> such statement, the second and third respondents are given up and these civil revision petitions are disposed. However, it is left open to the parties to proceed with the other issues before the competent civil Court on merits. Though this Court in the earlier round of litigation in CRP No.443 of 2006, directed the civil Court to dispose the suits within a period of three months and such an order came to be passed in the year 2006, even then the suits are pending. Considering all these facts, this Court directs the Principal Sub Judge, Madurai to dispose the main suits as expeditiously as possible by conducting day to day proceedings, preferably within a period of six months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. No cost. Consequently connected Miscellaneous Petitions are closed.
