The writ petition is filed for the following relief:

On 21.06.2016, this Court granted interim direction to respondents. The interim order is subsisting as on date.

In spite of granting sufficient time, the respondents have neither filed counter affidavit nor sent instructions in the matter or filed petition to vacate the interim order. Hence, without expressing view on merits, the interim order is made final order.

The writ petition is, accordingly, disposed of. There shall be no order as to costs.

Consequently, pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, also stand disposed of.
