AND

Crl.P.M.P.Nos.7734 & 7735 of 2017 IN/AND Crl.P.No.7362 of 2017

COMMON ORDER:

The 2nd accused of C.C.No.679 of 2014, who is the 2nd petitioner filed memo withdrawing the quash petition. Hence, so far as him the Criminal Petition is dismissed against him.

So far as offence under Section 307 IPC concerned, a perusal of the FIR itself shows from the statement recorded that he was treated as outpatient and even the defacto complainant show there are superficial injuries sustained and there are no even marks of injuries to show and it is rightly to consider only offence under Section 323 or 324 IPC and not a case under Section 307 IPC.

Since all accused persons of the three cases present and stated that to purchase piece through elders settled the matters.

Permission is accorded to compound the offences against the accused covered by the crimes and the proceedings are quashed and the accused are acquitted and the bail bonds if any shall stand cancelled.

Accordingly and in the result, the petitions and the Criminal Petitions are allowed. Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall stand closed.
