In the meanwhile, the petitioners stated that a draft notification was issued for acquisition of portion of the land for Telugu Ganga Project. It is their further claim that if the compensation is paid to the other joint owners excluding their claims, they would suffer serious loss. In those circumstances, they stated that they issued notices on 01.01.2017 and 22.05.2017, and in spite of the same, when there is no reply, the present writ petition is filed.

In respect of the representation dated 22.05.2017, the postal receipt sending the representation by the Registered Post is also filed. In the circumstances, the third respondent is directed to consider the said representation and take action in accordance with law, if any portion of the lands claimed by the petitioners is involved in the acquisition.
