

SMT. JUSTICE T. RAJANI

CRIMINAL PETITION No.999 of 2017

ORDER:

This petition is filed for quash of proceedings in C.C.No.386 of 2016 against the petitioners/A.1 to A.6.

Heard learned counsel for the petitioners. Learned Public Prosecutor takes notice for the first respondent. Both of them agree for their matter to be disposed of at the admission stage.

Learned counsel for the petitioners does not extend any special reason for invoking the jurisdiction of this Court under Section 482 Cr.P.C. The contents of the complaint would show that there are allegations made against the accused, though they are omnibus in nature. Hence, I deem that it is not a fit case to invoke the powers under Sections 482 Cr.P.C.

However, considering the plea of the petitioners' counsel that petitioners 2 to 6 are finding difficulty in attending the Court on every date of adjournment, their presence is dispensed with and the Court below is directed not to insist upon their presence till the discharge petition filed by the petitioners is disposed of. The petitioners shall file the discharge petition within two weeks from the date of this order failing which the proceedings shall go on as usual.

With the above observations, the Criminal Petition is disposed of.

Pending miscellaneous petitions, if any, shall stand closed.

SMT. T. RAJANI, J

26th OCTOBER, 2017.
