

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE T. SUNIL CHOWDARY

CRIMINAL PETITION No.4368 of 2017

ORDER:

This petition is filed under Section 482 Cr.P.C. to quash the proceedings against the petitioner/ accused in Crime No.250 of 2017 on the file of the Station House Officer, Women Police Station, Hyderabad, registered under Section 498-A IPC.

2. Learned counsel for the petitioner submitted that the Station House Officer has no right whatsoever to register a case under Section 498-A IPC. He further submitted that the allegations made in the complaint do not constitute any offence much less the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner. Per contra, learned Assistant Public Prosecutor submitted that the police are entitled to register a case under Section 498-A IPC. He further submitted that the allegations made in the complaint prima facie constitute the offence alleged to have been committed by the petitioner.

3. A perusal of the record reveals that the petitioner herein is the sole accused and the first respondent is the de facto complainant. As per the allegations made in the complaint, the petitioner herein subjected the first respondent to cruelty. It is further alleged that the petitioner is threatening the first respondent with dire consequences.

4. While exercising the inherent power under Section 482 Cr.P.C., the Court has to take into consideration the allegations made in the complaint only. The Court is not justified in embarking upon an enquiry as to probability, reliability or genuineness of the allegations made in the complaint at the initial stage of investigation. Whether the petitioner has committed the alleged offence or not will come to light during the course of investigation. The material placed before the Court is prima facie sufficient to investigate into the matter in order to ascertain the truthfulness or otherwise of the allegations made in the complaint.

5. Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated in *R.P.Kapoor v. State of Punjab*¹, *State of Haryana v. Bhajan Lal*², *V.Y.Jose v. State of Gurajat*³ and *Teeja Devi v. State of Rajasthan*⁴, I am of the considered view that it is not a fit case to quash the criminal proceedings at the threshold.

6. Taking into consideration the facts and circumstances of the case and also the principle enunciated by the Supreme Court in *Arnesh Kumar v. State of Bihar*⁵, the Station House Officer, Women Police Station, Hyderabad, is hereby directed to follow the procedure as contemplated under Section 41-A Cr.P.C. in Crime No.250 of 2017 so far as the petitioner/ accused is concerned.

7. With the above direction, the Criminal Petition is disposed of.

8. Consequently, Miscellaneous Petitions, if any, pending in this Criminal Petition shall stand closed.
