ORDER:

The writ petition is filed seeking a writ of mandamus declaring the action of the respondents in opening the rowdy sheet against the petitioner as illegal and arbitrary, and consequently to quash the same.

Heard and perused the material.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner was falsely implicated in three criminal cases in 2014 and that no cases are registered either before 2014 or after 2014 and the said cases are also filed as a counter blast to one incident. He further submits that the petitioner is a B.Tech student and throughout his career, he passed his schooling and college in distinction. The learned counsel prays this Court to direct the respondents to close the rowdy sheet against the petitioner.

Considering the facts and circumstances of the case, the petitioner is directed to make a representation to the respondents 2 and 3 stating all the reasons for closure of the rowdy sheet and on filing of such application, the respondents 2 and 3 are directed to consider the representation and pass appropriate orders as expeditiously as possible, preferably within a period of two months from the date of application of the petitioner. Further, the respondents 2 and 3 are directed not to compel the petitioner to come to the Police Station.

The writ petition is accordingly disposed of. Consequently, miscellaneous petitions, if any shall also stand disposed of.
