Having noticed extensive damage caused to the houses, Government evolved policy of acquiring land and to construct houses at free of cost to those persons affected by Hudhud cyclone. The grievance of the petitioners in this writ petition is that while identifying the beneficiaries proper exercise was not undertaken and ineligible persons are now included for provision of houses, while excluding the actual persons who were affected by the Hudhud cyclone. Ventilating the grievance, the mandal President of Bharatiya Janata Party, submitted representation on 05.06.2017 to the District Collector, Vizianagaram. Alleging inaction and not altering the list prepared, even though specifically grievance was brought to the notice of the competent authority about wrong entry of names of ineligible persons, no action is taken.
