

HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE V. RAMASUBRAMANIAN

Civil Revision Petition Nos.5724 and 5929 of 2017

COMMON ORDER:

Aggrieved by the dismissal of his applications for reopening and recalling PW.1 for further cross-examination, the respondent in a petition for restitution of conjugal rights has come up with the above revisions.

2. Heard Mr. Palle Nageswara Rao, learned counsel for the revision petitioner.

3. As rightly observed by the trial Court, the petitioner earlier filed two applications in I.A.Nos.554 and 555 of 2017 for reopening and for recalling PW.1 for further cross-examination. Those two applications were dismissed on merits on 12-07-2017. The orders were not challenged.

4. Subsequently, when the Original Petition for restitution was posted for trial, the petitioner filed fresh applications in I.A.Nos.780 and 781 of 2017 for reopening and for recalling PW.1. Therefore, the trial Court was right in dismissing the present applications. Hence, the Civil Revision Petitions are dismissed as devoid of merits.

As a sequel thereto, miscellaneous petitions, if any, pending shall stand closed.

V. RAMASUBRAMANIAN, J

Date: 29-12-2017

Ksn